

UNDERSTORIES

PHILLYCAM PRESENTS UNDERSTORIES

WELCOME TO THE UNDERSTORY

by Gabrielle Patterson

MARIPOSAS

by Frances Almodovar - An experimental short that reflects on forced migration through the Puerto Rican diaspora in Philadelphia, using vintage 1980s souvenir slides and the guidance of butterflies—symbolic ancestors—to explore the quiet sacrifices of migration, inviting us to reclaim wonder and rediscover beauty in the familiar.

HOPE AND ANTS

by Natalie Thomas - An experimental piece that explores sense of self within community while using understories of the local insect community.

REWILD

by Joy Waldinger (J. Eliza Wall) - "I contain multitudes" -Walt Whitman. This piece explores the delicate balance of the gut microbiome through themes of overgrowth and undergrowth.

THE SUSURRUS BETWEEN LIGHT AND SHADOW

by Nicole Duprée - An exploration of dancing light and shadow, and the wisdom echoing through thriving understories, captured in a series of anthotypes with turmeric-dyed paper.

THE FIRE INSIDE

by Tamara R. Jackson - Explores the raw physicality of anger and the transformative space where destruction gives birth to growth.

STAND TALL WITH COPING SKILLS: AVA'S GIRAFFE JOURNEY

by Dr. Jenine Lowery - A short documentary introducing young children to coping skills for managing their feelings.

INCUBATOR OF LIFE

by Gabrielle Patterson

UNDERSTORIES

PHILLYCAM PRESENTS UNDERSTORIES

WELCOME TO THE UNDERSTORY

by Gabrielle Patterson

MARIPOSAS

by Frances Almodovar - An experimental short that reflects on forced migration through the Puerto Rican diaspora in Philadelphia, using vintage 1980s souvenir slides and the guidance of butterflies—symbolic ancestors—to explore the quiet sacrifices of migration, inviting us to reclaim wonder and rediscover beauty in the familiar.

HOPE AND ANTS

by Natalie Thomas - An experimental piece that explores sense of self within community while using understories of the local insect community.

REWILD

by Joy Waldinger (J. Eliza Wall) - "I contain multitudes" -Walt Whitman. This piece explores the delicate balance of the gut microbiome through themes of overgrowth and undergrowth.

THE SUSURRUS BETWEEN LIGHT AND SHADOW

by Nicole Duprée - An exploration of dancing light and shadow, and the wisdom echoing through thriving understories, captured in a series of anthotypes with turmeric-dyed paper.

THE FIRE INSIDE

by Tamara R. Jackson - Explores the raw physicality of anger and the transformative space where destruction gives birth to growth.

STAND TALL WITH COPING SKILLS: AVA'S GIRAFFE JOURNEY

by Dr. Jenine Lowery - A short documentary introducing young children to coping skills for managing their feelings.

INCUBATOR OF LIFE

by Gabrielle Patterson

UNDERGROWTH

TERMITE TV PRESENTS UNDERSTORIES: UNDERGROWTH

OYSTER SPELLS

by Ingrid Raphaël - A Meditation on Oysters

THE FOOD OF THE YARD

by Michael O'Reilly - Explores the understory of the maker, his family and their backyard.

TUNNEL OF THE WORLD

by Anula Shetty - A subway journey exploring underground abandoned tunnels.

LAVA TUBES

by Michael Kuetemeyer - Cooling from the top forms an insulating skin. The heat, now contained, allows the inside to stay molten, flowing forward.

THE MORAY DANCE

by Francesca Lally - A rotoscoped underwater ballet, a sinuous manifesto. The eels have been watching us and this is what they have to say.

SHROOMS

by the Ghouls Next Door - Two friends conduct a ritual in hopes of making a meaningful connection with the spirit realm.

TINY WORLD

by Karen Lefkovitz - utilizes macro photography to reveal hidden worlds, which are a gateway to larger questions about human perception.

WHAT IS MYCELIUM?

by Alan Powell - Mushroom Talk/Dance

ALDA AND THE FUNGI

by María Teresa Rodríguez - For over two decades, Dr. Alda Rodríguez has harnessed the power of soil fungi to combat pests and diseases in plants and livestock. These microscopic allies are at the heart of her mission to eliminate agrottoxins from our food and to regenerate our soil and ecosystems.

ICE COCOON

by Kathleen Sweeney - explores winter wandering in open sensory symbiosis with nature, a rewilding search for refuge within breathing cycles of bird song, coyote calls, snow, ice and melt. "Ice Cocoon" seeks, scans and discovers, traversing woodland transitions, a metaphoric metamorphosis in cycles of seasonal transformation.

UNDERGROWTH

TERMITE TV PRESENTS UNDERSTORIES: UNDERGROWTH

OYSTER SPELLS

by Ingrid Raphaël - A Meditation on Oysters

THE FOOD OF THE YARD

by Michael O'Reilly - Explores the understory of the maker, his family and their backyard.

TUNNEL OF THE WORLD

by Anula Shetty - A subway journey exploring underground abandoned tunnels.

LAVA TUBES

by Michael Kuetemeyer - Cooling from the top forms an insulating skin. The heat, now contained, allows the inside to stay molten, flowing forward.

THE MORAY DANCE

by Francesca Lally - A rotoscoped underwater ballet, a sinuous manifesto. The eels have been watching us and this is what they have to say.

SHROOMS

by the Ghouls Next Door - Two friends conduct a ritual in hopes of making a meaningful connection with the spirit realm.

TINY WORLD

by Karen Lefkovitz - utilizes macro photography to reveal hidden worlds, which are a gateway to larger questions about human perception.

WHAT IS MYCELIUM?

by Alan Powell - Mushroom Talk/Dance

ALDA AND THE FUNGI

by María Teresa Rodríguez - For over two decades, Dr. Alda Rodríguez has harnessed the power of soil fungi to combat pests and diseases in plants and livestock. These microscopic allies are at the heart of her mission to eliminate agrottoxins from our food and to regenerate our soil and ecosystems.

ICE COCOON

by Kathleen Sweeney - explores winter wandering in open sensory symbiosis with nature, a rewilding search for refuge within breathing cycles of bird song, coyote calls, snow, ice and melt. "Ice Cocoon" seeks, scans and discovers, traversing woodland transitions, a metaphoric metamorphosis in cycles of seasonal transformation.